BACKGROUND:

The Lied Animal Shelter is a regional shelter encompassing the cities of Las Vegas, North Las Vegas, and Clark County. The shelter receives animals daily from animal control, public turn in, and owner turn in. Once the animal has been released from the lost and found area, it will be brought into adoptions.

The Lied Animal Shelter relies on donations from the community to provide care for this staggering number of animals while seeking a loving home for them. During this holiday season, citizens are encouraged to help the shelter find these animals a forever home by making a tax-deductible contribution or by adopting an animal.

The Lied Animal Shelter which is located at 655 N. Mojave Road, Las Vegas, Nevada 89101, is open for adoptions 7 days a week from 11 a.m. to 7 p.m.

Per Commissioner Weekly’s request, the Board is asked to recognize the Lied Animal Shelter for their endless efforts and support the community animal adoption awareness campaign during this holiday season finding homes to animals in need of care.

Respectfully submitted,

VIRGINIA VALENTINE, County Manager
